

Using a primary source to learn about a law

Directions: Read the primary source you have been given to learn more about the law you were assigned. Take notes in the spaces below.

Name of law _____

Title of primary source (name of book, document, etc. that excerpt is from)

Author of primary source _____

What is the source about? What is it describing?

What specific details in the source give you information about your law?

What conclusions can you draw about your law from this source?